WEEKLY FISH MARKET.

Trade continues good and stocks are growing considerably lighter. Salt mackerel is the only weak note in the strongest tone market for years. The smoked bloater supply is about covered by orders and frozen herring have advanced as previously predicted on account of the good demand and short supply.

The trade the past week has been the best of the season and about all the shipping and cutting establishments have been working overtime to keep up with orders.

The same firm tone is noted on all grades of cured fish, the high prices of last week being sustained, and cured large Georges even rising 25 cents to $8.25 per quintal, the highest recorded price since 1867 at least.

The fresh fishing fleet have done finely the past week, but despite the many large fares landed the prices have held very high and all have gone for market, none coming to the splitters.

The receipts at this port for the week ending Feb. 27 are 24,000 lbs. salt cod.
35,000 lbs. fresh cod.
44,000 lbs. halibut.
445,000 lbs. haddock.
75 bbls. salt herring.

FOR ONE YEAR MORE.

After That French Shore Modus Vivendi Not Necessary.

A dispatch from St. John's, N. F., yesterday says: The colonial legislature opened today. Gov. Boyle in a speech in which he urged the renewal of the French shore modus vivendi, said that negotiations were now pending between the colonial and imperial ministries for a settlement of the entire French shore problem, which would render a renewal of the present measure needless after this year.

The governor announced also a reduction in the taxes on foodstuffs equal to $180,000 a year, being eight per cent. of the total revenue of last year.

Western Halibut.

Four carloads of Pacific halibut are due at Boston today.

Gloucester Fish in New York.

The New York Herald in speaking of the conditions of the various markets says: "In the fish market the usual Lenten boom is better than ever from the dealers' standpoint, and the firm prices of meat and the hitherto high price of eggs have helped to push up all sorts of sea food. From Gloucester a fairly plentiful amount of cod at twelve cents a pound, together with hake and haddock, has been delivered to dealers here, but the ice covered bays and rivers have precluded all work on the part of inshore fishermen and the fresh fish supply is far below the normal."
